SEPTEMBER MEETING

The September meeting was held at the Lawson's hangar in Pasco. The Lawson's and Nancy Westermeyer co-hosted. Thank you for being hosts.

Several members of YOCC were joined by some members of the Corvair Club at the potluck dinner and air show.

The dinner was great with a variety of dishes that proved what wonderful cooks we have in our clubs! Many people asked for the recipe for the sauerkraut main dish. If you have the recipe please share it with us and we will print it in the newsletter.

The kids enjoyed the hands on projects that were set up in one of the hangars. And I must admit, grandparents enjoyed them too.

RECAP OF THE YEAR

This has been a great year for tours and get-togethers...

Baker City, Joseph, OR, Circle tour around the state and Goldendale.

The Swap Meet was a great success even though the weather did not cooperate. Our appreciation dinner at Columbia Park was well attended with approx. 50 people enjoying a chicken dinner. In August we participated in the Fair parade winning the Queen's Trophy. The Yale's hosted dinner after the parade.

Then we had a most enjoyable Air Show and potluck.

All of these activities take the planning and work of you the members. Your willingness to be involved and take responsibility for tours and meetings has made my job easy. It is a pleasure to be a part of this organization. Thank you for all of the help.

Martha

Vern and I want to thank everyone who helped us celebrate our 40th Wedding Anniversary. It was a very special day!.

Vern sez: Some of us get what we deserve-others get what's coming to them.

Happy Halloween
